From the Pastor

Dear parishioner:

It is with eagerness and enthusiasm that I begin my ministry with you to grow the Iowa Outreach. We remain an outreach of Annunciation Church in Homer Glen. The difference being that I will now serve as your priest. We have a window of opportunity that Bishop Robert has granted us to show him that this area is ready for a solid Byzantine presence. The support from the diocese/eparchy comes in the form of them paying my salary and health insurance. Normally that comes from the parish. Father Tom Loya has also pledged his support and that of his parish.

Upcoming I will be approaching each household after Sunday, liturgy in order to gather census information. Adam already has names, addresses, and phone numbers. This will be information that will be held in confidence only for my eyes and future priests who will serve here. I also anticipate having parish meetings at least once a month beginning in September after the Sunday, Divine Liturgy and Agape.

Unfortunately, there will not be services for this week's feast of the Assumption/Dormition. I have responsibilities at the Eparchial Family Camp held this week in Cedar Lake, Indiana.

Please remember in your prayers the mother of Adam Kemner, who currently is in comfort care and living day to day.

Make it a glorious week!
Christ is among us!

The Dormition of the Holy Theotokos

THE DORMITION OF THE MOTHER OF GOD AND EVER-VIRGIN MARY. Tradition relates that the Mother of God died in Jerusalem, after a visit with all of Christ's apostles. They carried her coffin to the Garden of Gethsemane where it was placed into a tomb. The apostle Thomas came late, and asked that the tomb might be opened so that he could reverence her body. When opened, the tomb was found empty except for the winding sheet.
